

Please reject BellSouth's petition to de-regulate broadband service. Accepting it will result in less competition as the phone companies will control the rates at which they sell broadband connectivity to ISPs. It seems they could directly or indirectly drive independent ISPs out of business through inflated pricing structures. That cannot and will not be good for the consumer.

Thank you for your time.